THE RECENT CARVING CASE IN THE THIR-THENTH WARD.—Frank Buckner, who was so severely injured by a couple of women named Caroline Brooks and Mary Emerson, night before last, at a brothel on Culvert-street, as reported in the Praess of yesterday, was sent to the Hospital, suffering so severely from his wounds that recovery is deemed extremely doubtful. The women were committed in default of ball, in the sum of $500 each, to await an examination to take place next Tuesday.

The Late Stabbing Appray on the Levee. Daniel Corbit, who was arrested night before last for stabbing another named Thomas Ford in a quarrel at the steamboat landing, was yesterday committed to jall to answer the charge of assault with intent to kill, before the Court of Common Pleas, in default of $1,000 bail. Both the parties were deckhands on the steamer Queen of the West, and the offense seems to have been given some time since. Ford's ear was taken off in the affray, but his injuries are not such as to prevent his ultimate recovery.

COMMITMENT OF ALLEGED DEALERS IN COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—Aaron H. Racing Intelligence.—A match of $200 between a couple of green horses, a pacer to be driven by Rockey, and a trotter by Dodge, mile heats, best three in five, to harness, will come off on Tuesday next, at the Cincinnati Trotting Park.

We understand that a match is on the topis for $1,000, between Corry's celebrated racking horse, "Archy," and a Teunessee horse belonging to Briggs. If made, it will doubtless prove one of the finest, and most closely contested matches of the season.

Col. Daniels intends taking his stable of trotters to the track during the coming week

The excellent faste and judgment of Mr. Ellster will have a time opportunity to display itself in this play, and we doubt not it will be put upon the stage with care. THE EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY ABOUT THE THE EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY ABOUT THE RESULT OF THE FIGHT.—The excitement on the reception of the news of the Sayers and Heenan fight in the city, yesterday morning, was intense, and for a time even the interest felt in the Charleston Convention was entirely swallowed up. The bulletin-boards of the daily newspaper offices were besieged, and the sidewalks blocked up until dark, while the extras and evening papers sold by the thousands as rapidly as they could be struck off.

IAN FOR THE THIRD TIME SWALLOWS POISON. Charles Young, who, our readers will remem-ber, was implicated in the death of Cordelia Calkins—whose melancholy demise under the influence of medicines taken for the purpose of producing premature parturition, a few months ago, excited so much sympathy— yesterday, for the third time since that un-fortunate affair, attempted self-destruction, by swallowing a large dose of laudanum. As in the provious instances, however, his pur-pose was discovered and thwarted. He has doubtless suffered several thousand deaths, and we are sure that it would be more humane to allow him to succeed in his efforts than further to prolong a life which mus ever be a curse to its possessor.

CINCINNATI SKETCH CLUB.—The Sketch Club met last evening at the house of C. J. Shipley, Esq., on Eighth-street, with an unusually large attendance. An Insane Man Jumps from the Second-story of the Court-house.—Edward Dare, an insane man, whose arrest we noticed yesterday morning, was yesterday examined be-fore the Probate Court. At the close he leaped from the window into the street, breaking his arm and otherwise injuring his body. He was removed to the Commercial Hospital.

RAILBOAD HOTEL.—The Railroad Hotel, on the corner of Broadway and Front-streets, has passed again into the hands of Mr. Lever-ing, and has been repapered, refurnished and entirely refitted, and guests can now be accommodated in excellent style. It is in the vicinity of all the principal railroad offices and steamboat lines, which gives it advan-tages over almost any other hotel in the city. See advertisement.

SCIENTIFIC ARTISAN.—The Scientific Artisan, issued yesterday, contains, among other interesting matter, the report of an important decision in respect to the legal effect of the surrender of letters patent upon claims for infringement of the privileges conferred by the same.

Max Found Drowned.—An unknown man was found drowned at the foot of Smith-street yesterday morning, dressed in a satin vest, light brown pants, coarse shoes and cotton shirt. Verdict, accidental drowning.

[From the Daily News, 1sth.] The Fight.—This long projected fight between Heenan and Sayers took place yesterday. By four o'clock in the morning the visitors to the scene of action were conveyed from the London bridge station, and they alighted near Fernborough. The fight lasted two hours and eight minutes during which two hours and eight minutes, during which two hours and eight minutes, during which thirty-nine rounds were fought. Sayers drew first blood, and Heenan claimed the first knock down. Sayers did not show any signs of punishment, but his right arm was much injured by his attempts to ward off Heenan's tremendous' blows. Heenan once got the champion's head under his arm, and seemed about to strangle him. The referee subsequents control under his arm, and seemed about to strangle him. The referee subsequently quitted the ring, and declared a drawn battle, but two or three more skirmishes were made, Heenan seeming indifferent as to whether he hit Sayers or his seconds.

The mob of people at the fight was immense. Long before four o'clock this (Tuesday) morning, London Bridge Station was literally besieged by spectators, to witness the fight, and at half-past four precisely the first special train was dispatched, containing about one thousand persons, and after traveling for about two and a half hours, arrived at a place called Ash, near Farnham, where at a place called Ash, near Farnham, where all of the people got out of the train, when, after crossing several fields and disches, ar-

A POETESS ASKING TO BE UNDERSTOOD,— Elizabeth Barrett Browning wishes it stated that the verses in her "Poems before Con-gress," entitled "A Curse for a Nation," which the Press published recently, are lev-eled—not against England, as is generally thought—but against the United States; not on account, she now tells us, of any remiss-ness on the Italian question, but on account of the negro matter. Republican says an outrage was recently perpetrated upon an estimable young lady of respectable family in that place. Going into the yard in the evening she was seized by two unknown persons, and a handkerchief placed over her mouth; she was then carried to the creek thrown in, and left to drown. She managed, however, to escape, and reached home in a state of prostration, after ten o'clock. About the affair there seems to be a mystery.

One Adminum or Senator Wigfall.—Senator Wigfall, of Texas, has an admirer. The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser says he is "one of the most original, racy, and fearless men of the times." It has been hinted that the racy Senator's late speeches were made under strong influences; but the authority just quoted gives a much more charitable and satisfactory solution of their eccentricities, saying that they were made "under the impulse of the moment."

Marine Eastroquage.—The brig Africas, which arrived at New York recently from Port-au-Prines, reports having experienced a violent shock of an earthquake at midnight on the 9th inst, when thirty miles from Port-au-Prince, in ninety fathoms of water.
